

phus lemoinei, Nos. 52649 to 52657), which deserve a place in every nursery of ornamental plants in America.

The botanical determinations of these introductions have been made and the nomenclature revised by H. C. Skeels and the descriptive and botanical notes arranged by G. P. Van Eseltine, who has had general supervision of this inventory. Miss Patty Newbold has assisted in the compilation of descriptive notes.

DAVID FAIRCHILD,
Agricultural Explorer in Charge.

OFFICE OF FOREIGN SEED AND PLANT INTRODUCTION,
Washington, D. C., November 20, 1922.