

heavy wet lands and still produce a fair crop. It will stand much wetter soil conditions than common vetch or hairy vetch.

"Also it is comparatively immune from aphid attacks, suffering but little when other vetches are seriously damaged.

"It has good seed habits and yields an abundance of seed."