

SOLANUM MURICATUM.

Fruits of the pepino, a perfectly seedless fruit with a decided taste of cucumber but sweet and melting, and appreciated by a great many people. It has been grown occasionally in South Carolina.