

207876 to 207920—Continued207876 to 207918—Continued*207884 to 207893. OFAR Selections.

207884. IX72.	207889. IX114.
207885. IX78.	207890. IX152.
207886. IX110.	207891. IX162.
207887. IX112.	207892. IX169.
207888. IX113.	207893. IX172.

207894 to 207918. Introduced into Florida by Ed Henriquez, Vero Beach, Fla.

207894. Variety A.	207907. Y23.
207895. Variety C.	207908. Y30.
207896. Variety D.	207909. Y32.
207897. Variety E.	207910. Y38.
207898. Variety F.	207911. Y54.
207899. Variety G.	207912. Y57.
207900. Variety H.	207913. Y58.
207901. Variety I.	207914. Y64.
207902. Variety HC.	207915. Y65.
207903. Y9.	207916. Y66.
207904. Y11.	207917. Y71.
207905. Y17.	207918. Y85.
207906. Y21

207919 and 207920. HIBISCUS SABDARIFFA L.Roselle.*207919. G648. Introduced into Cuba from French Equatorial Africa.207920. Variety L. Introduced into Florida by Ed Henriquez.207921. MEDICAGO ARBOREA L. Fabaceae. Tree alfalfa.

From Chile. Seeds collected by A. F. Swanson, Institute of Inter-American Affairs. Received Apr. 29, 1953.

From the Experimental Station of the Sociedad Nacional de Agricultura, Paine.

207922. STROPHANTHUS sp. Apocynaceae.

From French Guinea. Seeds presented by A. Pitot Telimele, through Joseph Monachino, New York Botanical Garden, New York, New York. Received Apr. 29, 1953.

Closely related to S. sarmentosus; rich in glucosides. Received as S. glabriflorus, an apparently unpublished name.207923 to 207941.

From the Union of South Africa and Turkey. Seeds collected by R. K. Godfrey, Agricultural Explorer, Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering, Beltsville, Md. Received Apr. 29, 1953.

Unless otherwise stated seeds were collected in Cape Province, the Union of South Africa.

207923. ASTRAGALUS sp. Fabaceae.

No. 1290. Above Witsand Bay on the Cape Peninsula. Nov. 29, 1952.